

MPSC Case No. U-17682
Joint Applicants' Response to
Staff's Audit Request 05-HJM

REQUEST NO. 05-HJM-1:

1. Assuming the FERC approves the Company's proposal for reallocation of ATC voting rights, please indicate if any of the following events would be possible in the future:
 - a. The Company could petition FERC for a change in ATC voting right allocation for the piece previously allocated with the outcome being a FERC approval.
 - b. Another interested party could petition FERC for a change in ATC voting right allocation for the piece previously allocated with the outcome being a FERC approval.
 - c. FERC could change the previously approved ATC voting right allocation under their own motion.

RESPONSE:

- a. It is possible that such a filing could be made in the future. Although the Company cannot predict the outcome of any such proceeding, it does not intend to initiate such a proceeding.
- b. It is possible that such a filing could be made. The Company cannot predict the outcome of any such proceeding.
- c. FERC could, on its own motion, initiate a proceeding to change the allocation. The Company cannot predict the outcome of any such proceeding.

Answered by: Mary Bengé

Dated: October 9, 2014